Page, of North Carolina, has taken in hand the regulation of flour prices, and announces that from this date the maximum price that may be charged for flour at retail sale is $12.50 per barrel.

Merchants are forbidden to sell flour to town or city customers in quantities in excess of one-half barrel and to rural or farmer customers in quantities in excess of one barrel.

"Any violation of these rulings upon the part of the retailers will invite prompt action by the food administra-

The flour mills are now making what is known as "war flour," under the di-little more of the by-product into the flour. Out of the sixty pounds of wheat the mills now turn out about fifty-five pounds of flour, where formerly the "turnout" was forty to farty-two pounds.

From six to twenty pounds of wheat is saved on each barrel of flour. The flour is not quite so white as that made for-merly, but it is good flour and makes Strange to say, the new product sells for about 50 cents per barrel more. That it because of the reduction in the price of bran and feedstuff. The millers ar allowed to put more of the bran into the flour and charge more for the flour, while they get less for feedstuff.

Bristol, Jan. 22.—Miss Florence A. Bishop, who is giving up her position as superintendent of Memorial hospital at Harrisonburg, Va., to devote her time to teaching nursing as a means of promoting America's indispensible interests in the war, has arranged through the Bristol Red Cross chapter to justifue a class in pursing FURS. Raccoons-No. 1, 50@75c; No. 2, 30@ ranged through the Bristol Red Cross chapter to instruct a class in nursing here. Her work in Bristol will begin next week, and the women are enthusiastically rallying to the support of the plan. Sentiment in Red Cross circles indicates enrollment of a large class for Miss Bishop. Mrs. George W. Robertson and Abram Shloss will be in charge of the registration at Red Cross headquarters in the federal building. Mink—No. 1. $1.00@2.00; No. 2. 75c@$1. MORNING

"A few nights ago one of my patrons had a small child taken with croup about midnight," writes M. T. Davis, Bearsville, W. Va. "They came to my store and got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. Before morning the child was entirely recovered. The father's name is C. C. Craven." Isn't it unwise to experiment with unknown cough medicines when you can get the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar? Best for coughs, colds, croup and lagrippe. Jp Anderson, Druggist, Chattanooga, Tenn.—(Adv.)
